MRS. JANE O'NEILL *

Word of the death of Mrs. Jane O'Neill, which occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital, Sudbury, on Sunday, April 17th, came as a shock to her Marmora friends. While she had been in ill health for several months few thought her condition serious. She was in her 72nd year and had been a resident of Marmora since 1925, until she went to reside with her daughter in Sudbury about a year ago. During her residence here she had made many warm friends.

She was a devout member of Sacred Heart church and her many fine qualities had won the esteem of all who came to know her.

The late Mrs. O'Neill was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kennealy and was born in Keene, Ontario. In 1892 she was married to the late T. J. O'Neill, who predeceased her in 1925. For about ten years they resided on a farm in Asphodel township and then moved to Hastings village, where they resided until Mr. O'Neill's death.

One son, Joseph O'Neill, of Marmora, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles O'Connor (Jean), of Sudbury, survive. One son was drowned when seven years of age. She is also survived by two brothers and two sisters, Michael Kennealy, of Keene; Patrick Kennealy, Toronto; Mrs. Geo. Legrow, Stirling, and Mrs. Barnes, Millbrook.

The remains were brought to Marmora by motor and the funeral was held from the residence of her son, Joseph, yesterday morning.

Requiem Mass was conducted by Rev. J. J. Keeley, assisted by Father Agnew. Interment took place in the R.C. cemetery at Hastings.
