

THURSDAY, NOV. 18 1909

OBITUARY

MRS. PATRICK CALLAGHAN

One of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Marmora township passed away on Monday 15th inst., in the person of Mrs. Patrick Callaghan, at the ripe age of 82 years. The deceased died at the home of her son, Thomas, after a brief illness, the infirmities of old age being the cause.

She was born in Belfast, County of Antrim, Ireland in 1827 and came to this country when she was about twenty years of age, and has since resided in Marmora township. She was a daughter of John Shannon and the eldest of nine children, one of whom, Mrs. John Neal, North Marmora, survives.

In 1852 she married Patrick Callaghan who predeceased her twenty-eight years ago. She leaves one son Thomas, of Marmora township, Mrs. Michael Sullivan, Marmora, and Mrs. John J. Buckley, Lancaster, N. Y. In religion she was a Roman Catholic, and was always a devoted member of her church. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning to the Church of the Sacred Heart, where a High Solemn Requiem Mass was sung for the repose of her soul.

MARMORA HERALD

Mr. John J. Buckley passed away at his residence in Lancaster, N. Y. on Tuesday, Oct. 8th. He was a former resident of this district and the remains were brought to Marmora for interment, Rev. Father Keeley conducting Mass on Friday last after which interment took place in the Sacred Heart cemetery. Mrs. C. A. McWilliams and Miss Margaret Sullivan went to Lancaster at the time of Mr. Buckley's death and brought Mrs. Buckley home with them. Her maiden name was Susan Callaghan and she was a sister of the late Mrs. Sullivan and the late Thos. Callaghan. She is the last member of the family and will live with the Misses Sullivan. Mr. Leo Sullivan accompanied his aunt and sisters home for the funeral.

MARMORA HERALD

THURS 17, OCT 1929

PAGE 5

MARRIED

CALLAGHAN—MORGAN

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Gregory's Church Thursday morning, May 20th, at eight o'clock, when Jean Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, 167 Simcoe St. South, became the bride of John J. Callaghan, only son of Mr. T. Callaghan of Marmora. The church was filled with friends of both parties.

The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Fair, while Mr. Wm. Sullivan a cousin of the groom, from Marmora assisted the groom. The bride, who wore a travelling suit of navy blue, with hat to match and white fox furs, carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. Immediately after the wedding Father Murray celebrated nuptial mass. During the ceremony Mrs. J. J. Callaghan and Miss Virgie Fair sang.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, the happy couple later leaving on the 10 o'clock train for a short trip to Buffalo, Rochester and New York. On their return they will reside at 167 Simcoe St. South.

The many presents to the bride show her popularity among the girls of Oshawa. One of the presents was a fine cut glass berry set from the Trimming Room of McLaughlins, where the bride worked before her marriage.—Oshawa Reformer.

MARMORA HERALD

3 JUN, 1920

PAGE 1

ANNA CALLAGHAN

In the death of her daughter, Anna Marguerite, Mrs. John Callaghan and her family have the sympathy of the whole community. Miss Callaghan had been ill for several months and passed away in Gravenhurst Sanitarium on Sunday evening, Sept. 8th, at the age of 22 years.

Previous to her illness deceased was engaged as stenographer in the office of Mr. D. J. Lynch.

The passing of a bright young life always causes a feeling of gloom among the friends and associates of the deceased. Miss Callaghan was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She bore her illness with a cheerful spirit, such as is seen in few patients.

Surviving the deceased are her mother, two brothers, John, of the Bank of Montreal staff, Windsor, and Will of town, and three sisters, Gertrude, Dorothy and Rita, all at home.

The funeral was held on Tuesday morning. Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Church by Rev. Father Grant. The pall bearers were Paul O'Sullivan, Charles Lynch, Angus Robertson, Richard Cooke Jr., Alex. Little and Gerald Farrell. There were many tokens of affection both floral and spiritual, showing the sympathy of a large number of friends.

The remains were laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery.—Campbellford Herald.

Note—Miss Callaghan was a sister of Mr. Wm. Callaghan who was local manager of the Pullman Family outfitters for some time in Marmora and she was quite well known around this district.

MARMORA HERALD

19 SEP 1935

PG 1

MARRIED

CALLAGHAN—ROSE

St. Mary's Church, Campbellford, was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday, with Rev. J. V. McAuley officiating, when Miss Helen Edith Rose, granddaughter of Mrs. Ellen Rosé, of Marmora, was married to Mr. William J. Callaghan, son of Mrs. Callaghan and the late John Callaghan, Campbellford.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Robert Williams, of Peterborough, looked charming in a gown of white net over satin modelled on colonial lines with square neck and large puff sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses. Dorothy Callaghan, sister of the groom, was her only attendant. She chose a frock of pastel pink chiffon with tucked jacket, and wore a cap of pink velvet roses. Her bouquet consisted of roses and bouvardia.

Mr. William Smoothie of Peterborough assisted the groom. Later a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's mother who received wearing a gown of white and black chiffon with corsage of roses. A sister of the bride, Mrs. Robert Williams, of Peterborough, who wore printed Air Force blue with corsage of roses assisted in receiving the guests.

For travelling the bride chose a black and white ensemble with matching accessories. Following a motor trip to Montreal and Quebec City, Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan will reside in Campbellford.

MARMORA HERALD

5 SEPT, 1940

PAGE 1

MARRIED

HEFFERNAN—CALLAGHAN

An event of local interest took place at St. Mary's Church, Campbellford, on Saturday morning, August 1st, when Mary Gertrude, daughter of Mrs. Annie Callaghan and the late John Callaghan, became the bride of James Leo, son of Michael Heffernan and the late Mrs. Heffernan. The Rev. Father McAuley officiated.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, John E. Callaghan, of London, clad in a long gown of peau d'ange, over white, carrying a white prayer book with Sweetheart roses and baby's breath. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played beautifully by Miss Crossen as the procession entered the church. During the ceremony Miss Crossen sang "Ave Marie", and "On this Day."

Miss Helen Rose, of Peterborough, acted as bridesmaid, in a creation of pale pink chiffon, a picture hat to match and pink shoes and bearing Premier roses and cornflowers. The matron of honor, Miss Hilda O'Keefe, of St. Catharines, was gowned in pink chiffon with brown hat and shoes, and carried a similar bouquet.

Mr. William Callaghan, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The ushers were Messrs. Angus and James Robertson.

After the ceremony the happy couple left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Marie Crossen.

They left amidst the good wishes of a host of friends for a motor trip, the bride travelling in navy and white figured chiffon with a short navy taffeta jacket and white accessories.—Campbellford Herald.

MARMORA HERALD

13 AUG 1936

PAGE 1