On the 26 July, 2001, Joseph Hulsmans and myself dowsed the Family plot of the Foley's at the Sacred Heart of Mary Catholic Cemetery located south of highway 7. This is the old historical cemetery.

There appears to be four casket burials buried at the Foley family plot and two either infant (baby) burials or they could be cremated remains. However in the early 1900's cremation was not very popular with Catholic's at the time.

- (9) - FOLEY, Michael

 - parents; James & Elizabeth
 - died 2 August, 1899
 - aged 31 years, 2 months & 2 days
 - his name inscribed on his father's monument

- ① - Could be cremated remains of Elizabeth Reynolds be located at lot one. Elizabeth was born 1825c and died 1911c.

- ⑤ - Could the cremated remains of Mrs Lawrence Foley nee Johanna O'Millia be in lot 5. Johanna was born 4 May, 1874 and died 14 July, 1921..

Is it just chance that both women's remains are located very near their husbands burials?

It is very possible that after Elizabeth's husband, James died in 1896 that she went to one of her daughters to live with. Did one of her children live away from Madoc & Marmora?. If so, she may have died at their home and would have had the mass said there. I suspect since her husband was buried at Madoc, she too has also buried at Madoc. If the mass was said outside of Madoc or Marmora, that is why we cannot find her burial records at those churches.

Lots one, three, five, six and seven are unused.

If I could make a few suggestions, why not relocate the upright monument belonging to James Foley (Sr) at the west end of his burial plot. Also his upright monument concrete base needs some work done on it.

At the same time, you could also relocate Lawrence Foley's upright monument to the east end of the family plot. His monument is presently laying flat on the ground. The concrete base of his monument needs immediate attention.

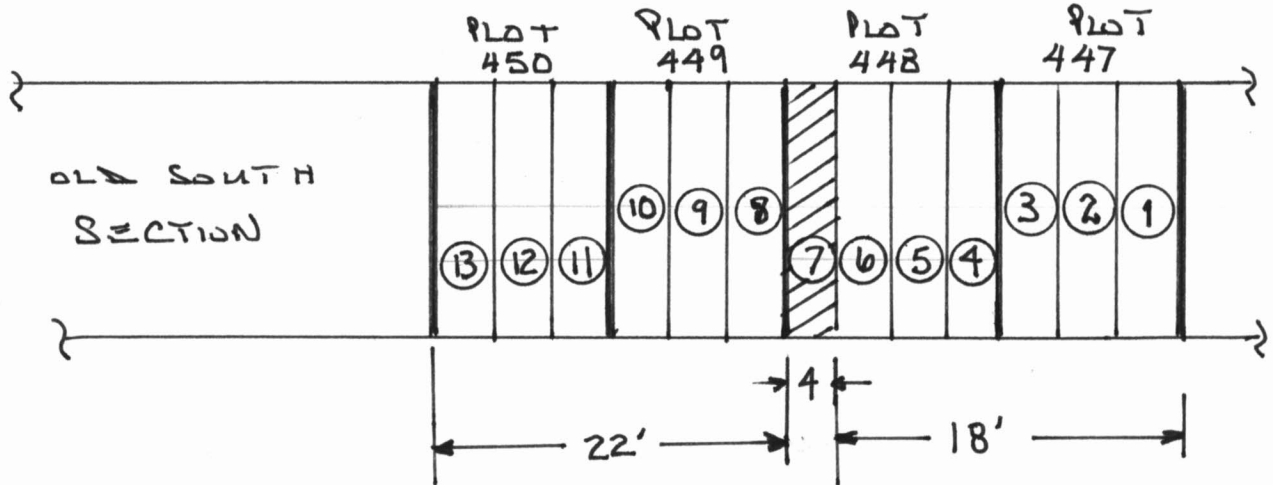

I could have the man who does the restoration at our cemetery give you an exact amount it would cost to repair and restore both these beautiful upright monuments to their former beauty. My quick guess would be approximately $300.00.

Hoping to hear from you shortly. Please keep in contact.

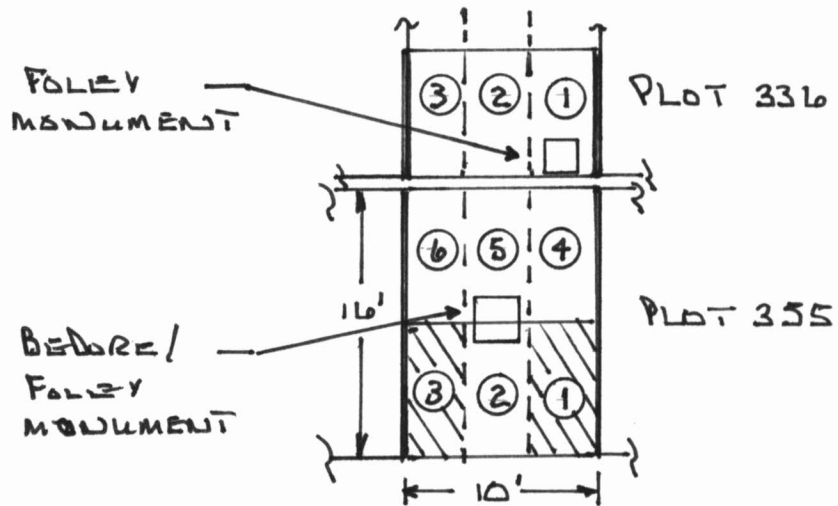

Yours truly
