MISS JULIA MEAGHER

After an illness of six years' duration Miss Julia Meagher died at her home at Springbrook on Sunday morning, August 22nd.

The late Miss Meagher, who was in her 75th year, was a daughter of the late Mr. Michael Meagher and his wife Katherine Keating. All her life was passed on the farm where she died and in the community she had many friends and was highly esteemed. In religion she was a faithful member of the Church of Sacred Heart, Marmora.

Surviving her are one brother, Mr. James Meagher, at home, Springbrook; four sisters, Miss Helen Meagher, at home, Springbrook; Mrs. Fred Gibson, (Susan), Toronto; Mrs. Paquette, (Matilda), Toronto; Mrs. Milton (Mary), Toronto. A brother John Meagher, died in February last.

The funeral was held on Tuesday forenoon, proceeding from her late residence to Sacred Heart Church, Marmora, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. H. J. Farrell. Interment took place in Sacred Heart cemetery.

MARRIED

REID — GIBSON

A quiet wedding solemnized on Saturday, April 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson, when their youngest daughter, Evelyn, became the bride of Mr. Walter Reid and the late John Reid.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Reid.

A wedding dinner was served by Miss Marie Meiklejohn and Miss Jean Morton to the immediate families following the ceremony.

The young couple left on a short wedding trip and on their return will reside near Springbrook.

OBITUARY

Joseph Gibson.

The funeral of Joseph Gibson, prominent farmer of Allan's Mills, whose sudden death following a heart attack, occurred on Thursday last, took place on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended.

Mr. Gibson was in his 67th year, and leaves no family, his wife having predeceased him a year ago, and a brother, Hewston, who had also resided in the district, having passed away only last June. Rev. Mr. Foley, of Springbrook, conducted the services, which were held at Ryleston United Church. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. H. Gibson, George Gibson, James Gibson, Russell Rowe and Thomas Dutton. The remains were laid to rest in Ryleston Cemetery.
