JONES, W. F. "Bob" — It is with heartfelt sadness we announce the passing of Willoughby Frederick "Bob" Jones at his home, Pleasant Meadow Manor, Norwood on October 2nd, 2019 in his 91st year. Adored father of daughter Roberta (Bobbi) Blakley. Grandpa Jones of grandsons Josh Walker (Steff), Doc Walker (Kristy) and very special great grandsons Landon, Logan & Nathan. Fondly remembered by his nephews Eric Jones (Janet), David Aboud and nieces Darlene Polk and Dianne Franklin (Keith) and many friends including his great granddog Stewie. He is predeceased by his parents Charlie and Molly, 3 loving wives Mary Ellen, Mima and Conny, brother Doug, sisters Velma, Noreen and Betty and cherished son Blair. Bob had a life that could never be explained. He worked in insurance for years then Trans Canada Pipelines as Head of Security & before his permanent retirement security for his team The Toronto Blue Jays. His retirement days were spent making music discs for everyone...he loved all music from Hank Snow to Lynryd Skynyrd, long walks in Havelock picking up trash. He always said we can keep Havelock beautiful if we pick up one cup or bottle a day. He volunteered tirelessly as co-chair on the Campbellford Hospital Cat Scan Committee. He knew an endless amount of history and information about Havelock and Marmora that was truly a gold mine of memories. His fondest achievement was helping The Station Restaurant prepare for their big Grand Opening, becoming close friends with Niko, Ianni, Kiki and Stephen. Huge thanks to Dr. Darlene Lunn and her entire team at Pleasant Meadow Manor for ensuring Bob's dignity and comfort during his entire stay. Dr. Neil Pritchard and Dr. Jamie Read together with the GAIN office provided Bob with lots of support and encouragement which helped him reach his milestone 90th birthday. Thank you as well to Mapleview Retirement home for all the kindnesses shown to Bob! A celebration of Life will be held at HAVELOCK UNITED CHURCH, 10 Ontario St. on Saturday, October 19th, 2019 from 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm. Marmora Loses Pioneer In Robert Jones

(Examiner Correspondence.)

MARMORA, March 11.—The last survivor of a family of ten children born to pioneer Irish settlers of Marmora township passed away on Friday morning, close to the place of his birth, in the person of Robert Jones.

The late Mr. Jones was born on May 8, 1853, his parents being the late Hugh and Anne Jones. His father was reeve of Marmora township according to directories of Hastings county for the year 1860 and 1864, and doubtless occupied the office in the years intervening. He was also a justice of the peace.

His mother, before marriage was Anne Keys. Her father, Royal Keys, a native of the County Fermanagh, Ireland, passed away on July 28th, 1871, at the advanced age of 107 years.

The late Robert Jones was proud of his Irish descent and the longevity of many of his kinsfolk and was quite an authority on events which dated back to his earliest years.

On January 17, 1872, he was married to Margaret Jandreau of Rawdon township, who was then the teacher at Marmora S.S. No. 2. She was a teacher of the days when teachers went to all families in the school section in turn for bed and board. Seven children were born of this marriage, of which one, Robert, is deceased. The others are Charles, clerk of Marmora and Lake township; Cyprus, Ottawa; Hugh, Belleville; Mrs. Julian Bedore, Marmora; Mrs. A. Kaiting, Kingston; and Mrs. H. Mitchell, Crediton.

Well Known Farmer

Mrs. Jones passed away about thirty years ago. For several years after, the late Robert Jones continued to reside at the old homestead, but later resided in turn with his granddaughter, Mrs. William Prest, Rawdon township, and his son Charles, Marmora township, at whose home his demise occurred, following a stroke sustained about a month ago. In addition to his children, he is survived by 37 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren.

For the greater part of his life, he was one of the township's best known farmers, but for a period of about ten years as a young man he worked in lumber camps for the Rathbun Company taking goodly sized contract. He was assessor for Marmora and Lake townships for about fifteen years, and when in his forties laid out the first colonization money for his township, continuing to serve in that capacity for ten years. For many years he was school trustee in his own section. He was also a director of the Marmora Cheese Factory for many years.

In religion he was an Anglican and until more recent years, attended Holy Trinity church from the time of its erection onwards. He served as rector's warden for some years under the late Canon C. M. Harris. He was an ardent Conservative though not aspiring to any office in the local association. He was highly respected for his many fine qualities and his death will be mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral cortege will leave the residence of his son Charles Jones, Marmora township, at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, for service in St. Paul's church, which will be conducted by the rector, Rural Dean A. B. Caldwell. Interment will take place in Marmora Protestant cemetery.

Obituary 1935

MRS. JOHN GARNEAU

TRENT RIVER, June 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—The community was deeply shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Elizabeth Roe Garneau, beloved wife of John Garneau, at her home, Trent River, Sunday night after a short illness of about six hours.

Mrs. Garneau, with her husband, had spent the day in Marmora with her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Jones, and family, leaving for home apparently in her usual health. Shortly after arriving home, she attended to the usual chores and when milking the cow took a weak turn. Mr. Garneau ran to the nearest neighbor and medical aid was summoned, but Mrs. Garneau never rallied.

Deceased was 71 years of age. Born in Stirling, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Roe, she was married twice; her first husband being James Covert. To this union were born five daughters: Mrs. S. Rylott of Havelock, Mrs. Walter Hermiston of Regina, Mrs. Charles Jones of Marmora, Mrs. Harry Pollock and Mrs. Ray Scott of Havelock; one son died at the age of five years. Mr. Covert's death took place at Victoria. In 1911 she married John Garneau of Trent River where she resided the remainder of her life.

Besides her sorrowing husband there survive the loss of a devoted mother, her five daughters, twenty-two grandchildren; two brothers, William Roe of Brantford and Jason Roe of Belmont.

In the passing of Mrs. Garneau, Trent River and surrounding district loses one of its most beloved and highly esteemed residents, one who was ever ready to give a helping hand in time of trouble, a kind friend, good neighbor and will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends.

She was a member of Trent River United Church, an ardent worker in the Ladies' Aid and Women's Institute.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon. After a short service at the house at half-past one o'clock, conducted by Rev. S. A. Kemp, the funeral cortege proceeded to Victoria Church, Cordova Road, where service was held, conducted by Rev. S. A. Kemp, assisted by Rev. Mr. Colquhoun, a former pastor of the deceased. Interment was at Victoria Cemetery.
