KELLY—JONES

1942

A very quiet little wedding took place on Saturday noon, January 31, in St. John's Anglican Church, Peterboro, when Ruth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Marmora Township, and William Howard Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kelly, of Malone, were united in marriage. Canon Robinson, rector of the church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Jones, of Peterboro, the former being a brother of the bride, were the attendants. The bride wore a dress of turquoise blue sheer with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses and carnations.

After a short trip to Toronto and points west the young couple will make their new home near Malone.

NEW FIRM

John M. Kelly & Co. the Latest to Acquire the Burns & Hahn Stock.

The following news item in reference to Mr. John M. Kelly, formerly a resident of Marmora, is taken from The Belle Plaine Herald of Minnesota:

Chas. J. Forsberg, who was announced last week as the owner of the Burns & Hahn stock of merchandise, has disposed of the stock and, on Monday, retired from Belle Plaine. The new proprietors are John M. Kelly & Co. L. R. Kelly, who conducted a store in that building two years ago, at the wind-up of the Sam Mell failure, has been here for the past week and closed the deal with Mr. Forsberg, buying the stock for his brother, John M., who comes here from Faulkton, S. Dak. L. R. Kelly will return to Waverly, where he has been conducting a store for some time. This place on the corner has been changing hands with astonishing frequency the past month, but the new proprietor tells us that it is going to be Kelly & Co, from this forward.

FAREWELL TO MR. AND MRS.
J. R. KELLY

On Monday evening of last week a number of the friends of Mr. J. R. Kelly who has been a resident of Marmora for the past ten or eleven years gathered at his home to bid him farewell on the eve of his departure for the Northwest, where he intends starting in business in the near future.

Although it has been known for some time that Mr. Kelly expected to leave town, it was not anticipated that he would leave so soon and most of our citizens were taken by surprise at his sudden departure. When it became known on Monday evening that he was leaving the next day a number of his friends suggested meeting at his home and giving him some token of appreciation in which he is held by the citizens of the village.

Accordingly, although there were only a few minutes to arrange the matter, about twenty gathered together and spent a very enjoyable time. A number present made short addresses referring to the many pleasant remembrances they have of their social and business relationships with Mr. Kelly. Mr. W. H. Hubbell acted as chairman and among those taking part were Dr. W. G. Mackechnie, Geo. Simmons, D. Shannon, A. Dickerson, H. Sabine, H. Wiggins, F. N. Maret and W. F. Bleeker.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were presented with a handsome case containing two silver mounted ebony brushes as a slight token of the esteem in which they were held by those present. Mr. Geo. Simmons, in a few well chosen words, making the presentation. Mr. Kelly made a very pleasing reply expressing his regret at leaving Marmora and the warm friendship which he feels for the residents of the village. After singing "Auld Lang Syne" the gathering broke up all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kelly God speed in their home.

HYMENAL

KELLY-SHEEHAN

The St. Cloud Times of June 26th contains the following account of the wedding of Mr. Jas. Kelly to Miss Mary Edith Sheehan of that city:

A wedding perfect in all its appointments and carried out with a nicety in every detail, was that of today which made Miss Mary Edith Sheehan the wife of James Robert Kelly. The ceremony was conducted in the Cathedral at 8 o'clock this morning, Rev. Father Scherer, assistant pastor, officiating, in the presence of a large congregation of near relatives and friends. At the hour and minute marking the beginning of the nuptial mass, the bridal party moved up the centre aisle, Miss Dollie Foley, the bridesmaid, leading, followed by the bride leaning upon the arm of her uncle, Mr. M. H. Foley, of St. Paul. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. As they slowly advanced to the altar the organ pealed forth Lohengrin's Wedding March. The bridegroom and groomsmen, Mr. J. F. Sheehan, a brother of the bride, advanced from the sacristy and met them at the chancel rail, the bridegroom, bride and their assistants proceeding to the altar steps where they knelt, and where the marriage ceremony was performed which united them for life. Following this a nuptial mass was celebrated. Mr. H. Gans presided at the organ. The singing by Miss Edelbrock, Miss Molitor and Mr. Martini, was excellent, and added greatly to the beautiful solemnity of the marriage service.

The bride's gown, a dainty invention of the modiste's art, was of French lawn, and trimmed with lace from her grandmother's wedding gown. The bridesmaid, Miss Dollie Foley, wore in a becoming manner a gown of white lawn, and a beautiful hat with pink plumes. The celebration of mass occupied about forty minutes. At its completion the bridal party moved out to the strains of Medelsson's march, and immediately repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katherine Sheehan, 301 Third avenue south, where a wedding breakfast was served to a company of about forty.

This afternoon Mr. Kelly and his bride took the train for Eastern points where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride is a niece of the Foley brothers, of St. Paul, formerly of St. Cloud. A number of the members of the family were among those present at the wedding, they having arrived from the cities last night, some by auto and a few by train.

The bride received a score or more of very beautiful and costly presents in addition to several substantial checks. A visit to the Sheehan residence this morning during the breakfast hour showed a picture of beauty and floral richness seldom equalled in St. Cloud. The parlor, dining room and halls were literally smothered with flowers. American beauties, iris blossoms, lady slippers, locust blossoms etc., were used in profusion, while the natural foliage was also placed to advantage. In the dining rooms strings of oak leaves drawn from four corners of the room centered over the table on which were bowls of the fragrant iris blossoms.

Mr. Kelly's many friends in Marmora will extend best wishes to him and his bride for a long and happy married life.

Mr. John Kelly writes us to send his paper to Faulkton, S. Dak., where he is managing a large general store for Messrs. the Kelly and Murray Company of which L. R. Kelly is president. John was conducting a store at Belle Plaine which he sold. Marmora people will be interested in knowing that John has joined the noble army of martyrs, the benedicts, having been married in Minneapolis last month.
