OBITUARY.

The reaper Death visited the home of a loved and well-known resident, when Mr. Wm. Hubble passed away. For many months Mr. Hubble has been suffering from neuralgia and partial paralysis, and on March 28th at 8.30 breathed his last. Deceased was born in Rawdon township Oct. 14th, 1825, and in 1846 married Miss Elizabeth Couch with whom fifty-one years of his life has been spent on the Hubble homestead, where three generations of their family have lived and died. Mr. Hubble was a man of prominent characteristics and seldom made an enemy or lost a friend, was a staunch reformer all his days, and over thirty years a member of the Baptist society.

The funeral took place on March 31 at 1.30. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Bonner, the officiating minister, his sons, followed by a large number of sympathizing friends, carried their loved and dead to the family plot on the estate. From there the funeral cortege moved to the Baptist Church, where all listened to an appropriate discourse from Rev. Mr. Bonner, assisted by Rev. S. Crookshanks, from the text "Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead," Acts, chap. 23, 8.

Several beautiful floral offerings decked the casket. He leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters to mourn his loss.

Brother, thou hast gone before us,
And thy saintly soul has flown,
Where tears are wiped from every eye,
Where sorrow is unknown;
From the burden of the flesh,
There from pain and care released,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.
