He is survived by his wife Nancy Neal, one step daughter Karen Greene and two step grandsons Ryan and Dalton also one foster son Robert Pratt and two granddaughters Kara and Susan as well, he is also survived by his sister Helen and her husband Don Case of Kingston Ontario, a sister-in law Mary Heath of Hastings Ontario, and many nieces and nephews.

Bud, as a young boy, growing up on a farm, was a member of the 4 H club . He raised Holstein calves and in many competitions won top awards. At the age of eighteen Cecil moved to Rochester N.Y. where he joined and served six months in the army reserve at Fort Dix. He then signed up for four years with the U S Air Force. He then wished to further his formal education. Not having his High School Mathematics or Science he submitted his resumes to a number of colleges under the G I Bill of Rights. He was accepted at Utah State University. At the end of five years he graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. His first position was with Boeing designing landing gears on the new 737 aircraft. Later he returned to Rochester N.Y. where he was employed in the Engineering departments at Shuron/Textron and later at Art Craft. After retirement, he continued to do consulting work with RetroSpecs in California. Bud as he was known to many will be remembered for his laughter and voice which resounded for blocks, but most important was his love and concern for his family. His funeral was held on April 8, 2008 in Mount Carmel Church Rochester, N. Y. Memorial donations may be made to your local Hospice, or to Mount Carmel Church.

HENDERSON, ROBERT, AND MRS. J.D. KERR *

The Herald has been asked to re print the following account of three deaths two in one day and the other within three months. The deceased persons were father, sister and a brother of Mrs. Wm. McCallum, of Marmora.

The home of Mrs. Robert Henderson, Cordova, was doubly bereaved on Friday, March 16, 1923, when the father, Mr. Robert Henderson, aged 85, and daughter Mrs. J. D. Kerr, aged 42 passed away. The latter predeceased her father by about five hours after an illness of four days from pneumonia. The late Mr. Henderson was born in Ireland and came to Canada when quite young, settling at Marmora, until his removal to Cordova some years later. He was a man of loving and kindly disposition, ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand and had a host of friends who will regret his demise.

In his passing a loving husband and father and true friend was lost to the home and community. Mrs. Kerr, whose husband passed away ten months ago in Los Angeles California, where they resided was on an extended visit to the home of her parents when the grim reaper death so suddenly entered, bringing with it double sadness. She is survived by a little son nine years of age.

Surviving Mr. Henderson is his loving wife, six daughters and one son—Mrs. William Sanders and Mrs. S. Quackenbush, of Havelock, Mrs. Winfred, of Madoc, Mrs. Scott of Marmora, Mrs. George Riley, of Marmora, Mrs. Keene, of British Columbia and Thomas, of Havelock. The double funeral which was one of the largest ever held in Cordova, took place on Sunday, conducted by the pastor of the Methodist Church, of which the deceaseds were faithful members, the service being held in the Methodist Church, Cordova. The remains were then laid to rest in a double grave in Rockdale Cemetery. The surviving members of the family have the universal sympathy in their sad bereavement. The late Mr. Henderson was a brother of the late Mrs. Thomas Arnold, of Campbellford and had many friends in town and township

MARMORA MAN FOUND DEAD IN CAR AT MINE

Sandy Russell Herman, 21, of Madoc 'St., Marmora was found dead in his car as it hung over the side of the Marmoraton Mining Company pit Sunday afternoon. Mr. Herman apparently drove through the steel link fence at the mine sometime Saturday night. The wreckage was sported by workmen after they noticed someone at the edge of the pit near the lookout tower. Normally the fence kept people away from the edge so the workmen went up to investigate and found the fence broken for about 100 ft. The car was in such a position that it could not be seen from above or from below unless its presence was known. The motor of the 1965 Pontiac was found at the bottom of the 640 ft. below sea level, pit but the body of the car came to rest about halfway down, at the 395 ft. level.

Fire Chief Cec Neal and two other members of the Marmora Volunteer Fire Department assisted workmen in pulling the car to where the body could be released. , Mr. Herman was the son of Mrs. Joan Ellis of Marmora and the late Jack Herman. He had been working in Oshawa at General Motors but came home on weekends.

Mrs. Ellis reported that her son had had an argument with his girl friend on Saturday but there was no indication that he was despondent. She had called the O.P.P. at Madoc to be on the lookout for him after finding his wallet on the front. lawn about 1 p.m. Sunday.

Marmora Herald Sept. 24, 1974

Funeral service for Sandy Russel Herman of 65 Madoc St., Marmora, was held at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Marmora on Wednesday, September 25 at 1:30 p.m. with Rev. John Lombard officiating. Mr. Herman died suddenly in a car accident in Marmora Township on Sunday, September 22, 1974.

GEORGE HILL, LATE OF MADOC, KILLED IN THE FAR WEST.

The following dispatch appeared in the Daily Empire of Monday. Who is George Hill, late of Madoc ?

Clealum, Oregon, April 14.—Last evening in the Miners' Arms saloon, at Roslyn, William Anderson shot and killed George Hill. The murder was most atrocious and without provocation. Anderson fired two shots, one taking effect in Hill's arm and the other in the right eye. Anderson then placed the muzzle of his Winchester in Hill's mouth and discharged it, literally blowing the wounded man's head to pieces. Anderson ran out of the saloon, but was overtaken and arrested by Post master Miller. Talk of lynching was indulged in, but Sheriff Mack brought the prisoner to this place and he was taken to prison at Ellensburg this morning. Anderson and Hill were Canadians and came to Roslyn from Madoc, near Belleville, Ont. Roslyn is quiet to-night the saloons having been closed all day by order of the town marshal.
