MRS. JANE MAY (CROSS) MATTHEWS ***

It was with deepest regret that so many residents of Marmora and Deloro learned of the death of Mrs. Fred Matthews at her home in Deloro on Tuesday morning October 24th. Although she had been under medical attention, for several years she had been feeling somewhat better of late and had enjoyed a visit in Toronto with her husband. She was returning, alone from the city on Monday afternoon, travelling by C.P.R. Upon arrival at Havelock she had occasion to purchase a ticket to Bonarlaw. Shortly after the train resumed its journey she suffered a stroke and when the train reached Bonarlaw, Dr. H. Crawford was summoned. The ambulance was called to convey her home, where she passed away as stated.

Forty years of age, the deceased was a daughter of Mr. John Cross and the late Mrs. Ada Cross and was christened Jane May. She spent all her life in Deloro and attended Deloro Public School. She was of a bright, sunny disposition and always eager to play her part in matters of public importance. She was the first to give ten blood donations at Belleville Clinic and to receive the gold pin, which she prized with the one received for the third and sixth donations. The donating of blood helped her physical condition and so gave her double pleasure.

She is survived by her sorrowing husband and two daughters, Gladys and Barbara. Also surviving is her father and the following brothers and sisters: John (Ted), Port Colborne; James, overseas; William in the Canadian army at Halifax; Mrs. F. Vincent, Belleville; Alice, Belleville; Mrs. Harry Pack, Mrs. Murray Empey and Mrs. Harry Lowery, all of Marmora, Mrs. Harry Gawley, Niagara Falls, Ontario, and Mrs. Clayton Sr., Madoc.

St Paul's Anglican Church was well filled for the funeral service which was held on Friday afternoon at 2 pm with the rector Rev. J.M. Brownlie officiating. Many beautiful wreaths were evidence pointing to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The hymns were "Nearer my God to thee" and "Abide with me" By special request of the family, a quartet consisting of Mr. & Mrs. L.R. Rundle, Mrs. J.B. Nichol and Mrs. P. Gray rendered "In the Garden". A comforting and uplifting message was given by the rector.

Interment took place in Maple Grove Cemetery Havelock. The pall bears were Messrs W. Rice, S. Glembiski, J. Hegadoren, P Gordon, S. Brooks and N. Willman. Those carrying flowers were Floyd Gray, H.O. Loveless, John Richardson, Leland Richardson, George Davidson and William Neal.

FRANK MEYERS

Very sudden death (Born 1865)

Mr. Frank Meyers of North Marmora died very suddenly at the Royal Hotel this forenoon. He came into town about ten o'clock and after doing a little shopping went to the stable and asked the hostler if he could lay down on the hay for a few minutes as he was not feeling well.

The hostler fixed a place and he lay down. He covered him up with several robes and left him. On returning shortly after the hostler tried to arouse him but was unable to do so. He hurried for the Doctor but before they could get back the man was dead.

Deceased leaves a wife and six children who will have the sympathy of the community in their terrible bereavement.

Dr. Mackechnie, Coroner, made post mortem examination and easily discovered that death was due to strychnine poison. Deceased had been out of his mind for some time and took this means of ending his life. The poison was bought at the drug store and mixed with whisky which he drank.

MRS. EMILINE R. MITCHELL ***

A former highly esteemed resident of Marmora passed away at her home in Toronto shortly before midnight on Tuesday, Nov. 30th. She was born in Stirling in 1861, and was a daughter of the late John Mills. While she was quite young the Mills family moved to Marmora and she was a resident of this village most of her life. At a comparatively early age she was married to the late William Mitchell, who predeceased her about eighteen years ago. After the death of Mr. Mitchell the family moved to Toronto.

The late Mrs. Mitchell is survived by a family of four daughters and two sons. The daughters are Jennie, Sarah, Mary, and Teena. They all lived at home with their mother, and one son, John, also lived at home. The other son, Alex, resides in Toronto. One daughter died a few years ago. Mrs. M. E. Carscallen, of Marmora is a sister of the deceased.

During the years she resided in Marmora the late Mrs. Mitchell was very highly esteemed and she still had many friends here. She was an active member of the Methodist church for many years. She had been in poor health for some time, and during the past summer spent several weeks at Crowe Lake. After her return to the city she became worse and for the past six or seven weeks she was confined to her bed. The remains will be brought to Marmora by C.P.R. railway, arriving at Bonarlaw station on the 1.15 p.m. train on Friday, Dec. 3rd, and will proceed to Marmora cemetery for burial service and interment.

NORMAN H. MITCHELL

The death occurred in Belleville last Thursday of Norman H. Mitchell in his 41st year. He had been in ill health for some years, but had made a brave struggle to recover his health and carried on his business in the Village until about a year ago. He spent last summer at Crowe Lake and in the fall took up his residence in Belleville with Mrs. Mitchell. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mitchell, of Millbrook, and was born and spent his early life in that Village. He came to Marmora about twenty years ago and was employed as shoemaker by Mr. J. D. Narrie. In 1916 the late Norman Mitchell enlisted with the 155th Battalion. Because of his trade he was appointed Battalion shoemaker with rank of sergeant. When his Battalion was absorbed in England he was transferred to the Eastern Ontario Regimental Depot at Seaford, where he continued to follow his trade. After demobilization he returned to Marmora for a time.

About thirteen years ago the late Norman Mitchell was married to Dorothy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who survives him. For a few years they resided in Toronto and then returned to Marmora, where the deceased carried on a shoe repair business. He was an expert workman and had the respect and esteem of those he came in contact with. He was a member of St. Andrew's United Church and was also a member of Marmora Band as long as his health permitted, being very fond of music. Besides his widow the late Mr. Mitchell is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. Chessman and Miss Delia Mitchell, both of Toronto.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon and one of the largest congregations ever to gather in St. Andrew's United church attended. The funeral was a military one under the auspices of Marmora Post of the Canadian Legion. Forty two ex-service men attended. The funeral was a military one under the leadership of Capt. Percy Gray. The casket was borne from the residence of Mrs. Martha Jones to the Church and from the Church to the cemetery by the following comrades: H.P. Naylor, W. Bedore, E. O'Connor, H. Osborne, W. Foster, H. R. Pearce, W. J. Cottrell and F. Grant.

The service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth and was a very impressive one. The service opened with the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and closed with "Nearer my God to Thee." After the scripture reading Messrs. W. A. Sanderson and G. Woodhouse sang "When my Soul Reacheth Home" in a very impressive manner. Rev. Hollingsworth spoke on immortality, his text being "If a man die, shall he live again." taken from the book of Job. His sermon was a very striking one and gave unanswerable reasons for believing in immortality. His references to the deceased also found a responsive chord in the hearts of his hearers. As the procession left, the Church the choir sang sweetly "The Old Rugged Cross." Just before the benediction Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth expressed appreciation of the attendance of the veterans and asked God's blessing on their organization.

The flag draped casket was borne shoulder high from the church to Marmora Protestant cemetery. After they dropped a poppy on the casket. Many beautiful floral tributes were also carried by veterans as they followed the casket.

WILLIAM MITCHELL *

DEATH OF WM. MITCHELL

After a lingering illness of many months with cancer, Mr. Wm. H. Mitchell, a highly respected resident of the village passed away on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, at the age of 56 years and 9 months. Deceased has been a resident of the village for a number of years, and during that time has taken an active interest in matters pertaining to its welfare. He was a member of the school board for a number of years, and was M. W. of the local A. O. U. W. and also a member of the I. O. O. F. and L. O. L. lodges. In religion he was an ardent Methodist taking a great interest in advancing the church's welfare, he being a trustee of the church for many years. Besides his widow he leaves a family of five daughters and two sons to mourn his loss, as follows: Lillie, Jennie, Sarah, Mary, John, Alex and Christina.

The funeral took place on Sunday under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge and was largely attended. Rev. Secombe conducted the services at the church while the choir assisted by Mrs. Nesbit and W. A. Sanderson rendered very appropriate music. At the grave side the impressive Odd Fellows service was read, a number of brethren from Madoc joining the local lodge and marching in a body to the cemetery.

PETER ELMER MOFFATT ***

Died From Carbon Monoxide Poison

While cleaning cut a well on the farm just north of Marmora which he purchased recently, Peter Elmer Moffatt was overcome by carbon monoxide gas and passed away before he could be removed from the well. He and Mr. Maurice McFall were attempting to pump out a well at the farm and had lowered a gasoline pump into the well. After the pump had run for a short time it stopped and Mr. Moffatt descended into the well to start it. In only a minute or so, he was unable to speak and collapsed into the well.

Mr. McFall descended, into the well also and tied a rope on Mr. Moffatt but before he could get out he was almost overcome by the monoxide fumes and had to be assisted out by Thos. Devolin, a neighbour who had happened to come by. They tried to raise Mr. Moffatt with the rope but when he was nearly out, rope broke and he fell to the bottom of the 38 ft. well.

Phone calls were made for the village resuscitator and the doctors, and James Walker, Marmora Fire Chief rushed out with the resuscitator and Drs. R. C. Shattord and H. G. Parkin hurried to the scene. Mr. Howden also rushed his ambulance to the farm.

Mr. Walker tied a rope around his waist and descended into the well where he managed to get another rope around Mr. Moffatt, but he too had to be helped from the well and collapsed on reaching the surface.

The resuscitator was used for some time without success and an attempt was made to massage the heart in an effort to revive Mr. Moffatt but he had been in the poison gas too long and all efforts to revive him failed.

Mr. Moffatt was a son of the late Thos. Moffatt and Mary Derry and was born in Marmora Township and had lived in the township or village all his life. About a year or two ago he had purchased the former Alex Quinn farm a short distance north of Marmora Village and had moved from the Village to the farm. He was an employee of Marmoraton Mining Company whose mine is at present closed down by the Steel Strike.

Mr. Moffatt was a member of St. Andrew's United church. He is survived by his wife, the former Florence Prest, a daughter Mary and a son, Ronald at home; his step mother, Mrs. Thom. Moffatt, of Peterborough; two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. C. Wiley. Madoc, Mrs. M. Johnson. Peterboro; Thomas Moffatt, of Peterborough and William Moffatt of Oshawa.; and three half-sisters, Mrs. G. Pratt. Warkworth; Mrs. E. Sanders, Peterborough and Mrs. Velma Smale.

The funeral was held yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon from the Howden Funeral Home to St. Andrew's United church Marmora where service was conducted at 2.30 P.M. by Rev. McLeod. Interment was in Marmora Protestant Cemetery. The pall bearers were Gordon Moffatt. Thos. Devolin, Claude Nichol Gordon Jones, Elmer Phillips and Thomas Smith.

Cremation followed with interment on October 25 at Marmora Protestant Cemetery.

MRS. VIOLA MUMBY ***

The sudden passing of Mrs. Frances Viola Mumby, beloved wife of Nathan Mumby, Sunday forenoon came as a shock to the whole community. Apparently in her usual health she prepared breakfast and ate it with her husband, who left home expecting to be absent for the day. Shortly after she complained of a pain in her back and lay down, but suddenly passed away before medical aid could reach her. Death was due to a heart seizure.

The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Allan McGarvey and the late Allan McGarvey. She was forty-one years of age and a life long resident of Marmora, where she had many friends and relatives. Friendly and cheerful and fond of having visitors at her home, she made a large circle of friends. She was a member of St. Paul's Church and of St. Paul's Ladies' Guild and gave active assistance in various church affairs.

Besides her husband she leaves four daughters, Josephine, Zeta, Betty and Jean, all at home. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Allan McGarvey; two sisters, Mrs. Don Robertson, Deloro, and Mabel, Marmora; and one brother, James Allan McGarvey, also of Marmora. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the family in their sudden bereavement.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, service being conducted in St. Paul's Church by Rural Dean A. B. Caldwell, who delivered a sympathetic, comforting message. Interment took place in Marmora Protestant Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Bishop, Manley Lavender, Gordon Jarvis, William Leonard, Frank Gray and Wilbert Bedore.
