

DEATH OF MICHAEL SULLIVAN.

The death occurred on Friday last of Michael Sullivan, a life-long resident of Marmora township, aged 61 years. He passed had been ailing for four or five years from a complication of diseases, but he was only confined to his bed for about a week. He did not take a very active interest in public affairs, although he was a school trustee for a number of years and was also connected with the Riverside Cheese Factory.

About thirty eight years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Callaghan, who, with a family of three sons and nine daughters, survives to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father. Following are the members of the family:

John J., Winnipeg; Mrs. C. A. McWilliams, Mrs. Hugh Auger, Misses Margaret and Clara, Patrick, Mary, Leo, Rose, Anna, Teresa and Lena, of Marmora. Mr. Sullivan was highly respected by those who knew him, being an honorable, straightforward business man, and a good neighbor and friend. The funeral took place on Sunday, Nov. 25th, to the Church of the Sacred Heart and a solemn High Requiem Mass was sung on Monday morning for the repose of his soul.

Death of Alfred McWilliams

At an early hour this morning Alfred McWilliams, youngest son of Mrs. C. A. McWilliams, passed away at his home here, in his 14th year. For a considerable time he had been in very poor health from diabetes and for some time it has been recognized that he could not recover. It was only due to his ambition and courage that he kept around as long as he did. The deceased was a general favorite with his school chums and all who knew him.

The sympathy of the community goes out to his widowed mother and brother in their bereavement. The funeral service will take place at 10 a.m. on Saturday at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Marmora.

OBITUARY

JOHN SULLIVAN

Another aged and highly esteemed resident of Marmora passed away in Kingston Hospital last Saturday in the person of John Sullivan. He was in his 82nd year and was born in Trenton, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan. While he was quite young the family moved to Seymour where the deceased resided for some years, but for a long time he had resided in Marmora.

The late John Sullivan was an expert logger and river driver and for about 30 years was foreman for the Rathbun or Gilmour companies. He was popular with the men under him and got results which satisfied his employers. For quite a number of years the deceased resided over The Herald office and we came to know him well. Quiet and unassuming he was always friendly, and his reminiscences of his years in the big lumber camps were always interesting. He was fond of children and some of the younger boys considered it quite a treat years ago to go to the woods with him, when he was hauling wood to the Village, and drive the horses or hold the lines.

The late Mr. Sullivan is survived by his wife, formerly Annie Flynn, two sons, James at home and William of Rockport, N.Y., and two daughters, Mrs. H. Sheldon and Miss Laura, both of Toronto. He is also survived by two brothers, Michael of Detroit, and Daniel of Washington, D.C., and two sisters Mrs. Sweet of Philadelphia, and Mrs. John Quinn of Seymour township.

The funeral was held on Monday morning Requiem Mass being conducted at Sacred Heart church by Rev. Father J. J. Keeley after which interment took place in Sacred Heart cemetery.

OBITUARY

PATRICK J. SULLIVAN

Marmora lost a citizen in the passing of Patrick J. Sullivan early last Sunday evening, who will be missed with regret by all classes of citizens young and old. Quiet and unassuming he went about his work day after day and year after year, making friends of all who learned to know him and apparently never creating a feeling of enmity. "Pat.," as he was known to everyone, was a living proof of the truth of the saying "A soft answer turneth away wrath". Sometimes, when half a dozen wanted a job done at the same time, and someone would become angry over having to wait and start calling him down Pat's face would light up with that smile, which was so characteristic of him, and make some quiet reply which would banish all ill feeling. Scrupulously honest, with a high sense of honor, he was respected by all who knew him. He never sought public office of any kind, but took a quiet interest in public affairs and enjoyed sports as a spectator. He was a devoted member of the Roman Catholic Church.

The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sullivan and was born in Marmora township. When Mr. Dan Shannon took over the hardware business from Dempsey Bros. Pat entered his employ. For years he assisted in the store or the tin and repair shop, whichever happened to be busiest. Later he gave his time entirely to the shop. In recent years he had been in charge of the repair shop, plumbing, etc., for Jones & Potts. The latter part of 1935 his health failed. In spite of skilled medical treatment he failed to improve and for the past couple of weeks it had been realized that he could not recover.

The late Patrick Sullivan is survived by one brother, Leo, of Temiskaming, Que., and eight sisters. They are Mrs. Hannah Auger, Mrs. Susan McWilliams and Mrs. J. A. Shannon, of Marmora; Misses Margaret, Clara and Lena, who resided with the deceased; Sister Blondina (Rose) of Smith's Falls and Miss Teresa, of Toronto. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family.

The funeral was held yesterday morning. Requiem Mass was conducted in Sacred Heart Church by Rev. Father Keeley and Mr. Harold Auger, nephew of the deceased sang a solo very impressively. Interment took place in Sacred Heart cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Joe Callery, Joe O'Neill, Donald Shannon, Glen Chambers, Geo. Forestell and Wm. Linn.

MRS. ANNIE O'SULLIVAN

After a long period of failing health Mrs. Annie O'Sullivan, widow of the late John O'Sullivan, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Shelton, 95 Douglas Ave., Toronto, on Tuesday, June 1st. She was in her 75th year and was born in Marmora Township, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Flynn. Practically all her life, with the exception of the past few months, had been spent in Marmora Village or township. Owing to ill health she has seldom left her home in recent years, but older residents will remember her as a quiet, kindly woman devoted to her family and a devout member of Sacred Heart Church.

The late Mrs. O'Sullivan is survived by two sons and two daughters—James, Marmora; William at Lockport, NY; Mrs. H. C. (Teresa) Shelton and Miss Laura, Toronto. Her husband predeceased her quite a number of years ago. She is also survived by four brothers and three sisters: James Flynn, Peterborough; David, Calgary Alta; Mrs. John (Catharine) McCullough, Sudbury; Mrs. Elizabeth Madden, Peterborough; Mrs. Teresa Warren, Marmora; John of Peterboro and Edward of Oshawa. Another brother, the late William Flynn passed away on November 11th, 1942.

The remains were yesterday brought to the home of her son James in Marmora and the funeral will be held tomorrow (Friday) morning when Requiem Mass will be conducted in Sacred Heart Church by Rev. Father Farrell.

OBITUARY

MISS MARGARET SULLIVAN

After about five years of failing health Miss Margaret Ellen Sullivan passed peacefully away at her home in the Village about 10.30 p.m. last Friday, February 28th. Until illness confined her to her home she took an active part in church and community affairs, and few in the community had as large a circle of friends. For years she was a very valued employee of F. N. Marett & Co. and her ability as a purchaser for the ladies' and children's department, her kindness, unflinching courtesy and popularity added a good deal to the success of the business.

She was a devout member of Sacred Heart congregation and an active and efficient worker in the Catholic Women's League, the Sacred Heart League and the Altar Society of the Parish of Marmora. Friendly, sympathetic and generous she was held in high esteem by an unusually large circle of friends and was popular at many social events. She was always ready to extend a helping hand to those in trouble.

The deceased is survived by seven sisters and one brother, as follows: Mrs. S. McWilliams, Mrs. Hannah Auger, Miss Clara Sullivan, Mrs. J. A. Shannon and Miss Helena Sullivan, all of Marmora; Sister Mary Blanding, Camrose, Alta.; Miss Teresa Sullivan, Toronto and Leo M. Sullivan, Ottawa.

The funeral was held on Monday morning proceeding from her late residence to Sacred Heart Church where a High Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father H. J. Farrell. Interment took place in Sacred Heart Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. A. Sanderson, R. E. Bonter, J. A. Paquet, H. A. McNally, J. E. Dunlay and G. Forestell.

LATE MRS. JOHN QUINN

On Saturday last there passed away another of the well-known and highly esteemed residents of the township of Seymour, in the person of Mrs. John Quinn. The deceased lady was born near Meyersburg in March 1861, being a daughter of the late Daniel O'Sullivan and his wife, Mary Ann Flynn.

The late Mrs. Quinn was well-known and highly regarded for her many excellent qualities of mind and heart.

As a young woman she was married to James Smith, who passed away many years ago. As a result of that union there survive three sons, Thomas H. Smith, Ironton, Minn; James A. of Flin Flon, Man., Daniel J., of Campbellford, and one daughter, Mrs. Agnes Dunlay, Hastings.

Some years after the death of Jas. Smith, the subject of this sketch, entered into marriage vows with her now sorrowing husband, John Quinn, of the township of Seymour. There survive three sons, Edward A. Quinn, Joseph and John Quinn, and one daughter, Mrs. C. C. Ketterer, of Chicago, Ill. Mrs. John O'Connor of Marmora is a step-daughter. There also survive one brother, Michael J. O'Sullivan, of Detroit, Mich., and one sister, Mrs. Sweet, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning and was largely attended. The cortege left the family residence in Seymour West and came to St. Mary's Church, of which the deceased was a devout member. Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father J. V. McAuley, Priest of the Parish, and the remains were laid to rest in St. Mary's cemetery.

WILLIAM FLYNN

Following an operation in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, from which he failed to rally William Flynn passed away early yesterday morning, after a comparatively short illness. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Flynn, early pioneers of Marmora township and who came to Canada from Ireland. The late William Flynn was born in Marmora township seventy-seven years ago and had lived all his life in the township or village, with the exception of a short period spent in Western Canada with his elder brother James.

The deceased had a wide circle of friends who will regret his passing. As a young man he worked in the lumber camps and was a proficient river-driver, when the big drives of logs were brought down Crowe River. Later he went into business in Marmora and conducted a livery business and sold buggies and cutters and other vehicles. He also had a liquor store in the large frame building, which was destroyed by fire. His large barn and other buildings were also destroyed in the same fire, together with a large stock of new buggies and farm equipment he had on hand for sale. His losses in the fire were very heavy.

After the fire he built the brick residence now occupied by Mr. E. C. Prentice, the large steel barn and the building occupied by Mrs. Milton Campbell, which was used as a liquor store for a time. The passing of the Ontario Temperance Act closed the liquor store. The deceased then carried on a flour and feed business for a time, but later purchased what was known as the Fidler farm in Marmora township where he has since resided.

Those who knew him best will remember him for his kindness and fondness for children. In religion he was a faithful member of Sacred Heart Church. He was a life-long Liberal, but in recent years had taken no active part in politics.

The late William Flynn is survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Annie Feeney, two sons and four daughters:— Peter J., Marmora; William, at home; Mary Ann, Peterboro; Margaret, R.N., New York; Madeleine Peterboro; and Marion at home.

He is also survived by four brothers and four sisters:— James Flynn, Peterboro; Mrs. Annie O'Sullivan, Marmora; David, Calgary; Mrs. John (Catharine) McCullough, Sudbury; Mrs. Elizabeth Madden, Peterboro; Mrs. Teresa Warren, Marmora; John, Peterboro; and Edward, Oshawa.

MRS. IDA A. McDONNELL

Last week The Herald announced the death of a former very highly esteemed resident, Mrs. Ida Augusta McDonnell, who passed away in Moose Jaw on Saturday, May 23rd. She was born in Marmora, her maiden name being Ida Pringle, and was married here to the late J. A. McDonnell, who predeceased her in 1934.

For some years Mr. McDonnell carried on a general mercantile business in Marmora on the corner now occupied by the 5c to $1.00 store, part of the time in partnership with the late Mr. Gladney and later with E. M. Gladney. In 1910 the family moved to Moose Jaw.

The deceased is survived by one son, Chas. McDonnell, of Toronto and one daughter, Mrs. C. J. (Lena) Sullivan, of Moose Jaw, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, May 26th, from St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. Rev. Father O'Byrne and Rev. Father Healey officiated and interment followed at the Rosedale cemetery.

MRS. JOHN L. McCULLOUGH

A pioneer resident of Sudbury and mother of two doctors, Mrs. Catherine McCullough, 84, died at the Sudbury General Hospital last Friday morning following a lengthy illness. April 1958

Solemn requiem high mass was sung in the Church of Christ the King, on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock. Interment took place in the family plot of the Roman Catholic Cemetery, in Sudbury.

A native of Marmora, Ont., where she was raised and educated Mrs. McCullough, the former Catherine Flynn met and married John L. McCullough in Marmora, in January of 1905. The couple lived here until 1921, when they moved to Sudbury. They lived for many years at 365 John St., in Sudbury, later moving to Cedar St.

ACTIVE IN CHURCH

During the years that Mrs. McCullough was engaged in the lumbering industry of the Sudbury district, Mrs. McCullough raised and cared for a large family and busied herself with organizations at the Church of Christ the King. She was a former executive member of the Catholic Women's League. In recent years, impaired health forced her to curtail her activities, and she had been hospitalized for some time.

Besides two sons, Dr. John F. McCullough and Dr. David W. McCullough of Sudbury, she is survived by four daughters, Mrs. H. C. Dick (Main of Sutton, Ont.), Mrs. W. J. Nelan of Copper Cliff and Mrs. Wilfred Bailey and Madelyn McCullough, both of Vancouver, B.C. A son, Eugene predeceased his mother in 1948. She was predeceased by her husband in June 1951. A sister, Mrs. Theresa Warren, of Marmora, and a brother, John Flynn, of Whitby, 17 grandchildren and one great granddaughter also survive.
